DETAILED CONTENTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Brief Contents</th>
<th>v</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Foreword</td>
<td>xiii</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Preface</td>
<td>xv</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>About the Author</td>
<td>xvii</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>About the Contributors</td>
<td>xix</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Mediation and Negotiation: Beginning with the Basics
1. Mediation and Negotiation: Beginning with the Basics 1
   1. Defining Mediation 2
   2. The Role of the Mediator 2
   3. Benefits and Risks of Mediation 4
   4. Understanding the Types of Mediation 5

When to Consider Mediation 7
1. Mandatory Versus Voluntary Mediation 8
2. Case and Client Assessment 9

Mediation Advocacy: Negotiation with a Twist 11
1. Distributive Negotiation 12
2. Integrative Negotiation 14
3. How to Decide Which Approach to Take 16

Summary 16

Additional Readings 18

Resources 19
Detailed Contents

3. Preparing Your Opening Statement ......................... 65
4. Preparing Your Mediation Plan ............................... 66
5. What to Bring to the Mediation ............................... 68
Summary .......................................................... 68
Additional Readings .............................................. 69
Resources .......................................................... 70

5 Client Preparation ............................................... 107
Holding a Pre-Mediation Meeting .............................. 108
Setting Realistic Expectations ................................. 110
Explaining Your Role in Mediation .......................... 110
Describing Caucus ................................................. 110
Advising Clients About Their Role .......................... 111
Summary .......................................................... 113
Additional Readings .............................................. 114
Resources .......................................................... 115

6 Ethics and Professional Responsibility in Mediation ........ 121
The Lawyer–Client Relationship in Mediation ............ 122
Conflicts of Interest ............................................... 123
Informed Consent .................................................. 124
1. Consent to Participate ......................................... 124
2. Capacity to Mediate .......................................... 125
Zealous Advocacy ................................................ 125
Good-Faith Participation ....................................... 126
Secrets and Lies .................................................. 127
Confidentiality in Mediation ................................... 128
Summary .......................................................... 129
Additional Readings .............................................. 130
Resources .......................................................... 131
Effective Advocacy in the Mediation Session

Before the Mediation Begins

The Opening Session

1. The Mediator's Opening Statement
2. Counsel's Opening Statement
3. Information Exchange
4. Initial Offer

Working with the Mediator

Client Participation

1. Interpersonal or Family Disputes
2. Business Disputes
3. Personal-Injury or Insurance-Based Disputes
4. Other Considerations

Caucus

1. Communication with Your Client
2. Communication with the Mediator

Settlement Offers

Summary

Additional Readings

Resources

Barriers to Settlement: Avoiding and Overcoming Impasse

Defining Barriers to Settlement

1. Misunderstanding the Nature or Process of Mediation
2. Discomfort with Your Role in Mediation
3. Relationship Between Counsel
4. Lack of Information
5. Choice of Mediator
6. Psychological Barriers to Settlement

Language, Culture, and Power Imbalance as Barriers

1. Language and Culture
2. Power Imbalance
Tactics Mediators Use to Overcome Impasse

1. Persistence

2. The Mediator’s Proposal

3. The Reality Check

What Can You Do to Help?

1. Take a Break

2. Meet with the Other Advocate

3. Invite Clients to Meet Alone

4. Propose a Last and Final Offer

5. Think to the Future

Summary

Additional Readings

Resources

Agreement and Enforcement Considerations

When to End the Mediation

Settlement Agreements: Wording and Considerations

1. Agreements Should Be in Writing

2. Agreements Should Be Written Clearly

3. Additional Clauses on Important Issues Should Be Included

Enforceability Considerations

Offers to Settle and Cost Considerations

Summary

Additional Readings

Resources

Complex Mediation Advocacy Issues

Multi-Party Mediations

1. Before the Mediation

2. During the Mediation

3. Coming to Agreement
Self-Represented Parties ............................................. 204
  1. Before the Mediation ............................................. 204
  2. During the Mediation ............................................. 205
  3. Coming to Agreement ............................................. 205

Parties with Disabilities ............................................. 206
  1. Before the Mediation ............................................. 207
  2. During the Mediation ............................................. 208
  3. Coming to Agreement ............................................. 209

Summary ................................................................. 210

Additional Readings ..................................................... 211

Appendix: National Mediation Rules and Code of Conduct for Mediators ... 213

Index ................................................................. 227